COVER STORY

CONAN THE BARBARIAN #23

Titan Comics

The Great Serpent's influence twists and turns, pulling Conan into their deadly coils as the Cimmerian and his allies are lured into Stygia. What they find on this journey will make their blood run cold and set the stage for a conflict beyond their wildest imagination! The Award-winning series continues with a new epic adventure from writer Jim Zub and artist Fernando Dagnino!

EKOS #1

Aspen MLT

This new series introduces Grell, who Embarks on a quest to discover the world of EKOS. Along the way, he is joined by such legendary characters as Aspen Matthews (Fathom) and Grace (Soulfire)! Produced by Marvel Studios Founding Chairman David Maisel, this new universe was inspired by the art and creations of legends Michael Turner and Geoff Johns, and features the all-star creative team of J.T. Krul, Alex Konat, Mark Roslan, Peter Steigerwald, and Josh Reed!

HARLEY QUINN X ELVIRA #1

Dynamite Entertainment

What happens when the Clown Princess of Crime gets bored? Shenanigans, hijinks, grievous bodily harm… the possibilities are endless! Now add in a certain macabre-minded TV host who seems to attract trouble like crypts attract vampires, and the stage is set for the greatest team-up since Frankenstein met his Bride! Written by the Harley Quinn team of Amanda Conner and Jimmy Palmiotti, this crossover event from Dynamite and DC features art and covers (x2 for each issue!) by Amanda, as well as variants by fan-favorites Joe Linsner and Mark Spears!

STITCH #1

Dynamite Entertainment

Dr. Jumba Jookiba, the scientist responsible for releasing the blue-furred phenomenon known as Stitch onto an unsuspecting galaxy, is in danger of losing his membership in E.G.G.S. — the Evil Genius Group-slash-Syndicate. What's a morally flexible genius to do? Why, create a series of evil inventions in an attempt to remain qualified, of course! Acclaimed writers/comedians/podcasters Connor Ratliff and James III (Tiny Dinos, Dead Eyes, Young Dylan, All That) join forces with otherworldly artist Greta Xella to bring Earthlings everywhere the all-new adventures of Lilo's irrepressible pet — featuring singularly celebratory covers from Edwin Galmon, Jae Lee & June Chung, Ciro Cangialosi, and Jennifer L. Meyer!

THE SAVAGE SWORD OF CONAN: THE ORIGINAL COMICS OMNIBUS VOL. 10 HC

Titan Comics

Collecting 13 issues of the classic Marvel magazine, The Savage Sword of Conan, this 10th volume in Titan's reprint series features stories from 1987-1988, written by Chuck Dixon, Larry Yakata, and Don Kraar, and drawn by Gary Kwapisz, Andy Kubert, and Val Mayerick. This volume also includes the graphic novel Conan the Reaver, by Don Kraar and the legendary John Severin!

IN THIS ISSUE

SCI-FI/FANTASY MONTH 2025!

124

The realms of SCI-FI and FANTASY are myriad and can take you to faraway lands filled with magical creatures, brave warriors, and castles with spires reaching into the sky, or unexplored worlds filled with alien menaces, robots on the rampage, or an idyllic domed getaway, unfettered by humans ever since "the incident"! The twin themes of SCI-FI and FANTASY have so much to offer readers, it's no wonder their the tops in comics, graphic novels, manga, and books! We've always got a superb selection of SCI-FI and FANTASY titles in every issue of PREVIEWS, and this month's issue is no different! Our product specialists have singled out a few exceptional examples right here on these very pages. Any one of these comics or graphic novels is more than enough to entertain any fan… but there's always room for more! Be sure to look for our SCI-FI / FANTASY icon throughout this issue for more out of this world read!

SUMMER IS HERE!

If you're reading this fresh from your visit to your local comic shop (the week of May 28th to be exact), then hopefully they had at least one copy of THE GUNHAND #2 on the shelves... although I hope they had more than that! Yes, after a very long series of delays, it's out there! And hopefully we'll have issue #3 right on it's heals.

As the title to this month's editorial states, Summer is indeed here (as of June 20th this month), and it is my favorite time of year! Everything is just a little better when there's no snow on the ground and you don't have to worry about the pipes freezing in the house. It's warm and sunny most of the time, there's new movies galore, fun trips if you have the time, barbeques with friends and family, and new comics and collectibles every Wednesday!

Free Comic Book Day is another one for the books for 2025, and if we're reading it right, it was a rollicking success for everyone involved. You can check out the fun via photos from many of the FCBD events held around the country and around the world, with updated galleries located on FreeComicBookDay.com! And because we never rest around here, we're already looking ahead to 2026...

And speaking of "looking ahead", this month's PREVIEWS theme is SCI-FI / FANTASY! Both genres have been the backbone of comics, graphic novels, books, movies, games and TV series for years, and are always well represented in the pages of PREVIEWS. So whether you're in the mood for galaxy-spanning space adventure or are ready to explore the depths of a lost tomb with your adventuring party, the worlds of SCI-FI and FANTASY should have a jam with your name on it.

And for a special curated list of introductory titles in the SCI FI / FANTASY genres, just turn to page 124 of this issue, and look for our special theme ICON, your ticket to Middle-earth or to Infinity and Beyond!

That's all for this month. But if you want to reorder a copy of THE GUNHAND #2 with your local comic shop, here's the codes: COVER A: MATT PLOG (APR241234); COVER B: BARRY McCLAIN, JR. (APR241235).

See you next month for the JULY issue!

SEE YOU NEXT YEAR!

Please tell us a bit about yourself!

A lifelong comic book fan, I worked my way up from an intern to a full editor at DC Comics where I helped create 100s of comics featuring DC's iconic characters and even wrote a few myself. After seven years, I transitioned into film, where I teamed with WB Pictures and New Line Cinema for 12 years to bring DC's characters to the big screen. Now, I get to combine all my experience and love for comics into my role as "Head of Studio" and "Executive Editor" at the new horror company I co-founded — PANICK Entertainment. And I'm even bringing my own original creations to life!

What are your favorite projects you've contributed to over the past decade?

As an editor, I had the opportunity to work on so many projects I'm incredibly proud of, but most of all is the universe spanning, epic event series Blackest Night. What a fun ride, working alongside so many talented people. As a writer, it was scripting the mini-series Flashpoint: Abin Sur and Flashpoint: Hal Jordan, as well as an Animal Man story in Untold Tales of Blackest Night. And on the film side, I was honored to be an Executive Producer on the movie SHAZAM!. The film has so much heart and joy and will always make me smile.

What are you currently working on?

I'm extremely excited for the world to checkout T.A.M.A., the virtual pet that's gotta kill 'em all! Growing up, I had a Tamagotchi and played plenty of Pokémon games, but eventually I stopped paying attention to my virtual creatures. That's how the concept popped in my head: what if one returned, furious it was neglected and now wants bloody revenge!

Teaming with my co-writer Doug Pasko, we built an entire world around the idea, all stemming from an abandoned video game called "CompAnimals". And believe me, it was shelved for a reason! All of the creatures have major trauma, just like you or me.

INDIE EDGE

Our main character is a teen named Kit, who's dealing with his own trauma. His dad recently passed away and his mom has been unable to cope, tossing herself into work and leaving Kit feeling completely neglected. When Kit discovers the CompAnimals game, he activates the virtual pet TAMA, who quickly becomes his best friend. Kit's surprised to discover that though he can only see TAMA virtually using VR or augmented reality (think Pokémon Go), TAMA can interact with the real world... and can slaughter people in it, too!

If you ever had a virtual pet, dabbled in the world of Pokémon, or enjoyed shows like Stranger Things, T.A.M.A.'s the book for you!

What indie titles are you currently reading?

The most innovative creativity comes from the Indie scene. I'm enjoying so many amazing titles such as the adorable animal horror of Image Comics' Feral from Tony Fleecs and Trish Forstner, and Image's The Horizon Experiment by writer Pornsak Pichetshote and Terry Dodson.

USER'S GUIDE

There's a lot of awesome comics and products to look through in PREVIEWS. "A lot" might be a bit of an understatement, as each month's catalog is filled with hundreds and hundreds of pages of upcoming comics and related merchandise! It can be easy to accidentally overlook a new series you've been dying to read or a figure you've been pining to add to your shelf when there's so many things to browse. That's why we've put together this guide to help you learn how to use PREVIEWS like a pro to order the awesome titles and products you want!

WHAT EXACTLY IS PREVIEWS?

PREVIEWS is part catalog, part magazine (we call it a Mag-a-log!) of monthly listings of all of the upcoming comic titles and related products from your favorite publishers and manufacturers in one convenient place. And don't worry—PREVIEWS is organized by publisher and product type (and color-coded to boot!), to make it easy to find and flip to the section or items you're looking for. Each item listing has the information you need, such as format, size, page count, price, release date, stock or item code, and descriptive text, and nearly every listing is accompanied by artwork or images.

The most important aspect of PREVIEWS to remember is that items solicited in the catalog are anticipated to ship 2-3 months later (or more). For example, if you found a comic you wanted in the May issue of PREVIEWS, you can expect to see it turn up in your local comic shop in July. The catalog can be a great resource for figuring out where your favorite comic series is going, or for discovering new ones that you'll want to add to your library—not to mention all the other awesome products!

HOW DO I ORDER FROM PREVIEWS?

When you've picked out all of the items you want, you can fill out the Short Order Form included in your copy of PREVIEWS and submit it to your local comic shop. You can also ask your friendly neighborhood retailer about obtaining a Customer Order Form, a booklet that contains a complete listing of all the items made available for that month. These forms make pre-ordering your comics and products a breeze and can help your local comic shop decide what to stock in the store for other customers, too! Be sure to also ask your retailer about their pullbox or subscription service. Once you've submitted your order, you can sit back and relax, or try to contain your excitement until your comics and merchandise arrive!

OVER 500 PAGES OF BARBARIC CONAN ACTION!

THE SAVAGE SWORD OF CONAN: THE ORIGINAL COMICS OMNIBUS VOL. 10

HEROIC Signatures

Titan's Direct Market Coordinator Chief Stride chatted with the Heroic Signatures archival team of Chase Marotz and David Hedgecock about the hugely successful Conan Omnibus series.

CHASE MAROTZ & DAVID HEDGECOCK - HEROIC SIGNATURES

CS: It's no secret that the Heroic Signatures/Titan Comics Conan omnibuses have been well received by fans but take us back to the beginning of this venture. Was the intention always to collect every Conan comic previously published?

CM: I'm not sure I can speak one way or the other on the intention of collecting everything being there from the get-go, but I do think the fan response to the initial collection has highlighted that there is an audience that's hungry for these stories and thinks that collecting the material is important. Broadly, comics were treated as disposable for a very long time, so it is a privilege to be able to help shine a light on work that may have been overlooked and forgotten and give it the treatment befitting the effort that the writers and artists put into these pages, which rule!

DH: I think the intention for the team here at Heroic Signatures is absolutely to preserve and archive every piece of Conan related comic book material ever published.

CS: Can you give us an idea of the process you have to go through?

CM: It can certainly be a pickle. Conan comics have been published for over half a century at this point, often times with several issues a month and across several different publishers. While we have a 12+ terabyte archive of files we have been pulling from, there are lots of little holes that you don't really know about until you find yourself needing a file. Thankfully, Marvel have been wonderful partners helping us cross-check against what they have in their files, and Colortek has been an incredible help in scanning any original production films that they have access to.

That said, there are gaps there as well, so for missing files, David and I will track down a copy of the issue and scan it ourselves, then have our pals at Digikore help us clean up the files into something nice and print ready. And all that is getting the files, not to mention making the bookmap, working with the designer to build it, then going through these huge tomes to make sure everything is in the right place... it's a lot of hours, that's for sure, but getting to hold something so substantial that you were a part of bringing together is a real treat.

DH: I would add that there are a surprising number of philosophical questions that arise in terms of just how something should be curated and then reproduced. If an error makes its way into the final print version of an original book, is it our jobs to preserve the error or correct it? More importantly, what do we do when the original intent of the creative team is unclear? Was that garish pink the original colorist used a printing error or was that what the colorist wanted? In general, we have chosen a path of caution and generally stick as close to the original as possible, warts and all.

CS: Don Kraar fills Conan the Reaver (collected here for the first time) with plenty of tension, suspense and action but for me the star of the show is John Severin's art. How do you feel this sits alongside the stark black and white of the Savage Sword material?

CM: I think of it as a delightful dessert after a satisfying meal. The black and white Savage Sword material is a masterclass in the power of pen and ink, and the inclusion of Conan the Reaver also demonstrates how powerful a tool color is in defining the Conan's world. Different flavors, all of them delicious! We hope the fans agree.

DH: John Severin is a significant creator within the annals of comic book history so to bring this story back into print was a true honor.

What happens when the Clown Princess of Crime gets bored? Shenanigans, hijinks, grievous bodily harm… the possibilities are endless! Now add in a certain macabre-minded TV host who seems to attract trouble like crypts attract vampires, and the stage is set for the greatest team-up since Frankenstein met his Bride!

With her beloved show on the chopping block following a corporate takeover, Elvira needs to come up with a plan to get things back in the black — and her new friend Harley Quinn has an idea that's just crazy enough to work! Together, they're going to throw the greatest Halloween party Brooklyn has ever seen — whether the borough likes it or not!

Written by AMANDA CONNER and JIMMY PALMIOTTI — the world-famous tag-team of all things Harley Quinn — this crossover event for the ages from Dynamite and DC Comics also showcases Amanda's fan-favorite artistic chops, with each issue featuring two (count 'em, two) Conner covers. And that's not all (certainly not!) — she's also joining interior artist (and Elvira favorite) JUAN SAMU to provide selected story pages for the series!

But wait, there's more! This premier issue also includes darkly captivating covers from JOSEPH MICHAEL LINSNER, CHAD HARDIN, BEN CALDWELL, and best-selling Mark Spears Monsters creator MARK SPEARS!

TWO SUPERSTAR CREATORS TAKE ON TWO SUPERSTAR CHARACTERS!

Jimmy and Amanda, Dynamite fans are going to be thrilled to see you writing another book following your epic Invincible Red Sonja (available now in a beautiful single-volume hardcover!). And you're returning for one of the most exciting crossover projects we've ever been involved with.

Let's start with Elvira: What history do you have with her shows, movies, and character (created and portrayed by the wondrous Cassandra Peterson)?

JIMMY: I first discovered Elvira many years ago; my buddy Joey Delfini had a poster of her on the wall, and he explained who she was and then we watched her movie and I was hooked on her look and great sense of humor. Since then she has become an icon, and as I read more about who Cassandra really is as a person, I became a bigger fan of her and her story and her perspective on the world around her.

AMANDA: What I remember about first discovering Elvira is wanting to be like her. She's got that sense of humor, that love of horror and comedy, and that hair and boobs and gorgeousness, all dialed up to eleven. I think she was (and still is) a great role model for all us weird girls.

I was lucky enough to be on a panel with Cassandra at San Diego Comic-Con yeeeeaaarrs ago, and she was such a smart, kind, and funny person. If I remember correctly, she may have mentioned something about giving up the Elvira mantle (NOOOOO!!!), but I am so glad she chose to keep being her!

Turning to our other key cast member: Harley Quinn is one of the characters in comics on whom you both left an indelible impact across a tenure of multiple years and countless contributions. You've reunited with her a few times after the conclusion of your core run, but what is it like to pick her back up again?

JIMMY: I think everyone got the wrong idea about why we stopped writing the Harley books. We eventually were writing the equivalent of three issues a month for many years, and we needed a break and time to have a life. It wasn't that we never wanted to write her again, we just needed an overall mental break from the amount of work we were doing. Since then, every offer we have had to write Harley — and those have been few and far between — we have taken.

We see Harley's story as ongoing and write her in her own continuity; this includes her supporting cast and where she lives and so on. When we were offered this crossover with Elvira, it was the easiest thing in the world to make it work for us. Diehard fans of our work will feel like we never left Harley, while at the same time we can take her on a new adventure with her new friend Elvira. This series is so much fun.

AMANDA: What Jimmy said. We began the Harley Quinn series as a monthly title, and we were told that it might not do so well and could end by issue six. Nobody realized that the series would take off the way it did, and when a comic becomes that beloved, the powers that be understandably want more of it. We tried to accommodate that, but towards the end of our run we were on two issues per month, plus specials... I was running on three hours of sleep a night, and Jimmy was grumpy. That said, we LOVE working with that character, and whenever we get an opportunity to do that, we grab it.

She is one of my favorite characters to work with, because I love a story and character with humor (even if it is dark humor). I've worked with characters who are dark, or who are angst-ridden, and I've found that the characters who fit me best are the ones with lots of humor, and lots of human foibles. That might explain my relationship with Jimmy.

In many ways, though perhaps not initially obvious, these two wisecracking women have some personality and attitudes in common (though they also certainly have their differences). How do the two of you see their dynamics, and how does that come through when you're writing their joint adventures?

JIMMY: Their goals are different, but how they reach them is the fun part. They each have a very instinctive way of creating chaos for those around them and themselves. They have two very distinctive voices, and it's so much fun watching them process each other.

AMANDA: It is so much fun putting these two characters together. We're almost approaching it as a buddy flick. It's much easier to write and draw Harley, because we've been doing that for so many years. Even though we have loved the Elvira character for years, we are not as familiar with writing her, and are still getting a feel for how to approach her. Cassandra has been majorly helpful with that, and we are definitely getting a better feel for writing Elvira. Nobody knows Elvira like Cassandra does!

We're hearing the central story for the series is a big, riotous Halloween party like no other. From either side of the equation, can fans expect any surprise guests to show up?

JIMMY: We are very loyal to Harley's established supporting cast and friends, and we will be dropping them in and out of the series in a way that makes sense to the story and characters. You can expect some super-people and other regulars along the way, but in the end it's up to the two main characters to deliver the goods. Why Harley worked so well during our run was about keeping the focus on her and her world, and with Elvira in the mix, we will continue that and bring Elvira's world into it as the series goes on.

AMANDA: Yeah, a giant Halloween bash seemed like a really excellent way to introduce Elvira into the world of Harley. And nothing Harley does is ever small and restrained, so it made sense for her to laser-focus on Elvira to make the Halloween party the most fantabulous event of the year. And yes, we'll definitely be seeing some characters who we love working with, because that's what we do!

Artist Juan Samu is joining the party too, as the primary illustrator for the series, following his work on Elvira Meets Vincent Price. But in addition to illustrating covers for the series, Amanda, you are also providing select interiors on this book, which is incredibly exciting. As you're both artists as well as writers, how is it working with a collaborator like Juan, and additionally working your own pages into the mix?

JIMMY: Honestly, we are having a blast, and having both Juan and Amanda drawing it just makes it better. We are trying to give the people what they want from these two characters, and I feel that both artists are doing the same. It's really shaping up as it goes on, and Juan and Amanda are making a great team.

AMANDA: We've seen the first batch of pages, and I'm loving what Juan is doing! His work is really fun, and it has so much life in it. It lends itself really well to Elvira and Harley.

Admittedly, I was also a little bit envious of him being able to draw this book, so I figured out a way to get to be able to do a bit of drawing in it myself. I'm really hoping that Juan doesn't mind too much!

Dr. Jumba Jookiba, the scientist responsible for releasing the blue-furred phenomenon known as Stitch onto an unsuspecting galaxy, is in danger of losing his membership in E.G.G.S. — the Evil Genius Group-slash-Syndicate. With all the time that he's been spending on Earth, Dr. Jumba hasn't earned enough Villain Points to re-up next year. And while he no longer considers himself fully "evil," he really wants to stay in E.G.G.S. — mainly for their great dental plan, and complimentary intergalactic travel lounges.

What's a morally flexible genius to do? Why, create a series of evil inventions in an attempt to remain qualified, of course! There's just one problem (well, two, if you count Pleakley's vain attempts to rein in the good doctor): Stitch is a wild card that Jumba can never properly account for in his calculations — and the fuzzy little ball of chaos finds a way to ruin every one of his brilliant inventions!

Acclaimed writers/comedians/podcasters CONNOR RATLIFF and JAMES III (Tiny Dinos, Dead Eyes, Young Dylan, All That) join forces with otherworldly artist GRETA XELLA to bring Earthlings everywhere the all-new adventures of Lilo's irrepressible pet — featuring singularly celebratory covers from EDWIN GALMON, JAE LEE & JUNE CHUNG, CIRO CANGIALOSI, and JENNIFER L. The year is 1138, and the immortal Demona and her now adult-aged adopted daughter Angelika have left the nomadic Viking life behind them in an effort to find some stability in a dangerous and uncertain world. The two living Gargoyles have settled down in the French city of Vyonne, where they can spend their days resting among the stone gargoyles of the cathedral.

But their rocky counterparts turn out to be less inert than they first appear, having been carved by a local magician who can animate them to do his bidding. Upon discovering the presence of Demona and Angelika, the warlock proposes an alliance to further each other's interests. But are the two Gargoyles equal partners in the arrangement — or unwitting accomplices?

Find out in the third issue of Gargoyles: Demona, from the all-star creative team of Gargoyles creator GREG WEISMAN and animated series collaborator FRANK PAUR — featuring expertly sculpted covers by PAUR, MEGHAN HETRICK, JAE LEE & JUNE CHUNG, and DAVID COUSENS!

Fenton Crackshell — a.k.a. Gizmoduck — has to get out of town. Like, really out of town. After a mechanical miscue in his Gizmoduck gear leads to the destruction of a Duckburg bank, Uncle Scrooge reassigns him to the McDuck Moon Mines, where he can use his technical savvy to count rocks — and stay out of trouble!

But when Scrooge and the boys pay a visit to his lunar holdings via rocket ship, the usually tranquil Moon is suddenly assaulted by alien invaders. These unfriendly space pirates pack a lot of firepower, which means that for once, Uncle Scrooge might be grateful for Gizmoduck's super-heroics — that is, if they all manage to survive!

Ground controllers BRANDON MONTCLARE and TOMMASO RONDA launch their avian adventurers to new heights in DuckTales #8 — featuring out-of-this-world covers from RONDA, IVAN BIGARELLA, FRANCESCO TOMASELLI, CARLO LAURO, and ALAN QUAH!

As Tygra, Snarf, and the Powerpuff Girls continue on their quest to help rescue the ThunderCats from the plague of mysterious crystal entities infesting Third Earth, their little fellowship is gaining more allies with each crystal-possessed adversary they defeat — but the strain is wearing on the three Titans of Townsville, who don't have their accustomed powers to fall back on.

Fortunately, they've just been joined by a newly liberated Cheetara, who provides a much-needed boost to morale just as the party enters the beautiful but treacherous Crystal Canyon. What they find there takes everyone by surprise — especially Blossom, Bubbles, and Buttercup, who have probably never even heard of the Lunateks!

Flawless comic book diamonds PAULINA GANUCHEAU and COLEMAN ENGLE show off their creative facets in ThunderCats/The Powerpuff Girls #3 — surrounded by cushion-cut covers from GANUCHEAU and ENGLE as well as CORAN KIZER STONE, SAOWEE, and NICOLETTA BALDARI!

ORPHAN AGE VOLUME 1 TP

(W) Ted Anderson (A/CA) Nuno Plati

One day all the adults died, all over the world, at the same time. Now it's twenty years later, and the children—all grown up—are still rebuilding the world. Horses and caravans are the only thin lines connecting tiny, scattered settlements— little sparks in the great dark night. Gasoline is gone, phones long dead, television a memory. The only power in America is the New Church, the religion of the angry children, that blames the destruction of the old world on the dead adults. In the settlement of Dallastown, a stranger comes riding in, telling a story of escape from the New Church's unstoppable Firemen. Their current target, an assassin named Petrogaze, carries an appealing 300 million credit bounty on his head and the job seems like an easy task. The duo plans to power up, bag the bad guy, and be home before dinner...but Petrogaze is much tougher than anticipated and the fight goes awry. Forced to consume their fruits early, the bounty hunters are suddenly on a life-or-death timer. Looks like dinner's gonna have to wait! Including a cast of unique and colorful characters, OMEGA 6 is Nintendo veteran Takaya Imamura's debut manga based on his video game, OMEGA 6: The Triangle Stars. (STL376630) (C: 0-1-2)

AMERICANMYTHOLOGY PRODUCTIONS

Monster Masters, Dan Parsons & Michael Gordon, delivers their stark grey tone creature feature - Jade Vampyre - in a single glorious issue! The story originally serialized in American Mythology Monsters is told the way it was meant to be read, in a single horrifying sitting. Beautiful Egyptologist, Safiya Mahmoud discovers much more than even she bargained for when she and her fellow archeologists uncover a long forgotten sarcophagus buried deep in the heart of the desert. After extensive study and examination at Safiya's ultra-modern Cairo research facility, the truth begins to reveal itself about what they have found. What lies in the State-of-the-Art examination chamber is no ordinary mummified corpse, but "Mernheptan: The Plague Giver,"the most evil, reviled pharaoh in Egyptian History. Despite the concerns of her friends and colleagues, Safiya's obsession with the ancient cadaver intensifies. She works day and night in the laboratory, never leaving the mummy's side until the strange supernatural attraction totally consumes her, with unimaginable and terrifying consequences!

Dorothy reunites with the Scarecrow at the Tin Man's tomb, only to discover that everything in Oz is not as it seems. Meanwhile, Peter Pan and Hook form an uneasy alliance aboard the Jolly Roger, encountering Tiger Lily and her flying shark canoe warriors as they search for the kidnapped Tinkerbell. As Georgie escapes the Red Queen's dungeon with help from a surprisingly sane Mad Hatter, the true nature of the Jabberwock is revealed—a shapeshifting entity with the power to corrupt the purest hearts. When Dorothy confronts the Lion in the Wicked Witch's tower, she discovers the Beast has manipulated them all, turning allies against each other. The issue culminates in a shocking transformation as the Jabberwock uses his golden crown to corrupt Dorothy herself, transforming the girl from Kansas into the Wicked Witch of the West, setting the stage for an epic confrontation that will determine the fate of the NeverWorld. ANDREWS MCMEEL

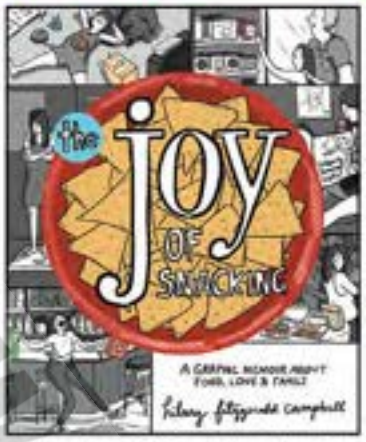
THE JOY OF SNACKING: A GRAPHIC MEMOIR ABOUT FOOD, LOVE & FAMILY



(W/A) Hilary Fitzgerald Campbell

From standup comedian, New Yorker cartoonist, and the author of Murder Book comes this fresh comics memoir about being a snacker in a world of foodies. With equal parts humor and unflinching honesty, Hilary traces her life story through food: from her childhood as the ultimate picky eater, her teenage and young adult years of disordered eating, and finally learning to love herself again. Punctuated throughout with ridiculous (but very real! and important!) snack recipes like "a baggie of goldfish" and "burnt toast," Campbell captures the reality of growing up in a woman's body in the '90s and '00s in how it shaped her life in work, friendship, and dating. Especially dating. These hilarious stories of family, romance, and belonging prove that if food can isolate us, it also has the power to connect us to what matters most. (STL372974) (C: 0-1-1)

With the help of the birdbrained Earheart Triplets and a few new friends, Wizkit follows the clues back to Book, and discovers that she has more in common with the culprit than she could have ever expected. HORROR / THRILLER

© PREVIEWSworld PREVIEWSworld.com

The shuttle reached my designated stop, which was about a mile and a half away from mine. I hiked back, but as I approached our house, I received a new message on my Chingu account from someone calling themselves "Your Friend." It said, "I'll start neighbor or your wife will be killed. Investment is in the next five minutes and post to Chingu with the tag #killerkillbot. I give you this chance to save her only because of our friendship." I thought it was some sick spam message and made a note to file a ping. But an audio file was attached. "Cecil," Rosa said. "Please help me. This man says he'll kill me unless you do as he asks." It was definitely her voice.

I immediately called her, but her phone was turned off. I rushed to my house, but in the second floor window where my wife's personal office was, I saw a stranger pace back. He was wearing a sanitary mask so I couldn't see his face. But he held up a knife. I felt my chest constrict. I checked my home security feeds and saw someone break into the house earlier in the day. I called Rosa again. There was no reply. I didn't know what to do, but then I heard someone say, "Hey Cecil."

I looked over. It was my neighbor, Edward. He was an older gentleman who'd always been very kind to us. He had an errant tuft of white hair above him and wore a Warriors shirt. He was watering his flowers, which he meticulously took care of every day. He served in Vietnam, still had a limp after getting shot twice in the leg. His kids lived out in Indiana and visited every winter break. He had a Pomeranian he took out for walks every day at noon.

"One minute left." I received the warning via Chingu message. Another audio file was attached. This time, Rosa was screaming in agony and pleading, "Stop! Please stop!!"

I wanted to call the police, but I didn't have enough time. What should I do? I can't let him kill Rosa, but Edward...

The next thirty seconds felt like an eternity. "It's time," the message notified me.

I tried to set up the livestream, but then fumbled my phone. I nervously picked it back up, then placed the camera on the ground. I didn't check the angle, just hit record. I moved towards Edward, not sure how to kill him. I didn't have any weapons on me and there wasn't anything I could use in close proximity.

"Nice weather today," he said with a friendly smile. "Got any plans?"

My hand shook. I felt my breathing speed up. The closer I got, the more uncomfortable Edward appeared.

A look of shock came to his face when I... when I punched him and struggled him with the water hose. He struggled desperately. Why are you doing this? his confused expression asked me. There's a moment in everyone's eyes when they realize they're going to die and begin to cry. Tears... To suffer so much in one life, then to have it ended this way... I hated myself. Everything became blurry to me until I heard another car approach. The car stopped, the door opened, and I heard a scream. I looked around and saw a terrified Rosa.

She hadn't been lower...

The plays color Beryl's otherwise humdrum life amongst the slaughterhouses and cobbled alleys of the city. The strip hasn't been significantly reprinted and it never achieved wide circulation in newspapers. This book presents, for the first time, the full range of Carol Day art, from Wright's first story to his last, with examples from every story. We have gathered 136 outstanding Carol Day examples from across David Wright's run to display. You'd better bathe in garlic, grab a crucifix and wrap up warm, for this most spooktacular, edition of illustrators. This 200 page festival of fright delves into the darkest recesses of EC lore with an in-depth look at the life of the most reclusive of the EC gang-as EC scholar Grant Geissman describes Graham Ingels—"Mr Horror Himself." Further light is shed by the reminiscences of fan and fellow EC scholar Don Vaughan as well as Ann Tyler, who attended Ingels classes during the period when he was tutoring painters. For Warren fans (and we know there are many of you out there) we have a contribution from J. David Spurlock, in a feature about Basil and David's friendship with the great man. And from the UK we have Shane Oakley. Once seen, never forgotten—that's Shane's art in a nutshell. ILLUSTRATORS SPECIAL #17: THE TRIGAN EMPIRE'S ARTISTS SPECIAL SC

(W) Diego Cordoba
(A) Don Lawrence & Various
One of the most fondly remembered British strips was the fully painted The Rise and Fall of the Trigan Empire. With its pseudo retro setting in a world resembling Ancient Rome but with the advances of science in its weapons and flying vehicles, it set the standard in boys' comics from the 1960s. But it was mainly the absolutely stunning artwork of its initial artist, Don Lawrence, that made it a fan-favorite. We take a closer look at the artwork and feature panels in detail from the various artists who contributed to the series. The majority of the artwork was scanned from the originals and reproduced at their actual size to see the artwork in all its glorious detail. (STL298113) (C: 0-1-2)

Once, Cannon and Trish were each other's lifeline—two queer second-generation Chinese nerds trapped in the suburbs. Now, on the uncool side of their twenties, the essentialness of one another feels harder to pin down. In Cannon, Lee Lai's much anticipated follow-up to the critically acclaimed and award-winning Stone Fruit, the full palette of a nervous breakdown is just a slice of what Lai has on offer. As Cannon's shoulders bend under the weight of an aging Gung-gung and an avoidant mother, Lai's sharp sense of humor and sensitive eye produce a story that will hit readers with a smash. DO ADMIT: THE MITFORD SISTERS AND ME HC

(W/A/CA) Mimi Pond

Mimi Pond crafts a gorgeous, dazzling biography of the Mitford Sisters. In Do Admit: The Mitford Sisters and Me, they grow from cloistered turn-of-the-century country girls into debutantes who would marry into political influence—for better or worse. Is it any wonder that a young, working class Mimi in Southern California becomes enamored with The Mitfords' downright fanciful rich-and-famous lifestyle? This charming, inventively cartooned, and lovingly researched biography captures the dramatic, over-the-top antics of high society's strongest personalities as they rubbed elbows with some of history's most infamous fascists and communists. OVER EASY GN

(W/A/CA) Mimi Pond

After being denied financial aid to cover her last year of art school, Margaret takes a waitressing job at local Oakland fixture: the Imperial Cafe. Here an impressionable young woman transforms into the worldly Madge as she is introduced to the wisecracking, fast-talking, drug-binging cooks, dishwashers, and waitstaff in her new life. Over Easy is equal parts time capsule of late 1970s life in California—with its deadheads, punks, disco rollers, casual sex, and drug use—and bildungsroman of a young woman who grows from a naïve, sexually inexperienced art-school dropout into a self-aware, self-confident artist. THE WEIGHT GN

(W/A/CA) Melissa Mendes

In The Weight, Melissa Mendes' pastoral cartooning captures the openness of rural America—soft breezes, tall grass, whirring grasshoppers, rainstorms, skinned knees. But all the while, the cruelty, the disappointment of man lurks behind the barn and in the trailer. Life can be stubbed out as easily as a cigarette tossed in the dirt. One moment all focus, next, gone without a thought. Will Edie find herself repeating a cycle or will she be free like she felt as a child? (STL375647) (C: 0-1-2)

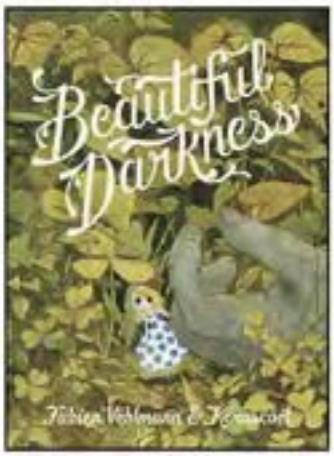
ESSENTIAL ITEM



BEAUTIFUL DARKNESS GN

(W) Fabien Vehlmann
(A/CA) Kerascoet

Newly homeless, a group of fairies find themselves trying to adapt to their new life in the forest. As they dodge dangers from both without and within, optimistic Aurora steps forward to organize and help build a new community. Slowly, the world around them becomes more treacherous, as petty rivalries and factions form. Beautiful Darkness became a best-seller and instant classic when it was released in 2014. This paperback edition of the modern horror classic will contain added material, preparatory sketches and unused art. (STL092241)

THE CUSTOMER IS ALWAYS WRONG HC

(W/A/CA) Mimi Pond

The Customer is Always Wrong is the saga of a young naïve artist named Madge working in a restaurant of charming drunks, junkies, thieves, and creeps. Oakland in the late seventies is a cheap and quirky haven for eccentrics and Mimi Pond folds the tales of the fascinating sleazeball characters that surround young Madge into her workaday waitressing life. Told in the same brash yet earnest style as her previous memoir Over Easy, Pond's storytelling gifts have never been stronger than in this epic, comedic, standalone graphic novel. (STL052156)

O/A GLEEM GN

(W/A/CA) Freddy Carrasco

Imbued with cyberpunk attitude and in the rebellious tradition of afrofuturism, GLEEM is drawn with a fierce momentum hurtling towards a future world. Carrasco's distinct cinematic style layers detailed panels and spreads, creating a multiplicity of perspectives, at once dizzying and hypnotic. Vignettes unspool in proximity to our own social realities and expand into the outer layers of possibility. (STL306562)

O/A LAND OF MIRRORS GN

(W/A/CA) Maria Medem

Antonia is the sole inhabitant of a deserted town, with only a roaming pack of dogs and her own worn out memories to keep her company. Nothing is new in this world, the ponds are so still they are dead, and her recollections feel more vivid than her surroundings. At times, the isolation is unbearable. Until she meets her flower. Her flower gives her purpose: a reason to get up each morning, to ring the bells of the town, to wake up the fields, and to feel alive. And yet a relentless thought eats away at her—what will happen once her flower dies? Slowly Antonia opens up to the world beyond her town, to the people who inhabit it—and to the endless possibilities of community and friendship. (STL348031)

O/A THERE'S NO TIME LIKE THE PRESENT GN

(W/A/CA) Paul B Rainey

Paul B. Rainey's There's No Time Like the Present continues to upend grand science fiction gestures with a deep desire to understand the emotional lives of the common man (nerd). It's a simple conceit: time travel is only possible between the invention of the necessary, functioning machinery and the day those machines are shut off. In that finite sliver of space-time, humanity schisms into those who defiantly refuse to look into the future, and those who reap the benefits of doing so. (STL352337)

O/A WHY DON'T YOU LOVE ME GN

(W/A/CA) Paul B Rainey

Claire and Mark are stuck in the doldrums of an unhappy marriage. She chain-smokes and refuses to leave the house or even change out of her bathrobe. He sleeps on the couch and can't distinguish one day from the next. With all love lost for family life, pizza and Chinese food take turns on a nightly take-out dinner menu. Husband and wife are plagued by the idea that this is all a dream. Why can't Mark ever remember their son's name? Isn't he a barber? Doesn't he play in a band? Why is Claire obsessively stalking her ex-boyfriend online? When exactly did she stop caring about what the kids wear to school? And just why can't she be bothered to tell the other mums at pick-up apart? Didn't Claire and Mark have different lives? As reports of an imminent nuclear war make subtle waves on the radio, the truth begins to dawn on them... (STL342976)

Driven by a thirst for freedom, she escapes to the wild, uncharted territories beyond. DAKOTA PINK: TOP MODELS OF METART.COM HC

(A) Isabella Catalina

Stunning Dakota Pink became the 73rd Metart model to join the 50+ Club at the end of May 2024. This is an honor reserved for those few elite stars that have made 50 or more appearances in their modeling career. The voluptuous Russian beauty debuted at the age of 19 in August 2018 and has been featured 51 times to date, all shot by Matiss. She has over 6,100 photos on Metart, but not one video in her portfolio. Dakota has been exclusive to top artist Matiss across the Metart Network with just one explicit photoset each on Metart X and SexArt. Matiss is an artist known for his preference to shoot in scenic outdoor locations, and 34 of Dakota's Metart sets are in alfresco settings. Though Dakota has been sharing her nude beauty on Metart for six years, she gives no indication of quitting just yet. MICHELLE H: TOP MODELS OF METART.COM HC

(A) Isabella Catalina

Stunning redhead Michelle H is one of our most popular Metart models. Most notably, she has starred in several very hot girl-girl movies on Viv Thomas, working with director Alis Locanta; while on SexArt she is a major star, with 27 photosets to date, three girl-girl movies (one with top model Nancy A and one with Sybil A) and an unforgettable boy-girl movie, "The Port." She's a sultry goddess, but with a gorgeous smile that makes her altogether more approachable. And then, there's that stunning figure. It's not just her looks that have made her so successful though; she's a smart and ambitious girl, who brings her unique vision to her own movies. Her work as Red Fox here on Metart, on Metart X, and particularly her kinky, fetish flavored films on The Life Erotic, suggest she is a creative force to be reckoned with. THE COMPLETE HATE VOLUME 1

By Peter Bagge

$29.99 / SC / 348 pgs / B&W / 7.3" × 10.5"

The definitive edition of the Great American Grunge Graphic Novel, now collected in paperback for the first time!

Peter Bagge, along with the Hernandez brothers and Daniel Clowes, is one of the primary architects of the alternative comics genre that exploded in the 1980s and 1990s. His compelling and best-selling comic book series Hate chronicled the exploits of Buddy Bradley and his gang of lovable losers through the rise and fall of the grunge era, and beyond. Going beyond mere satire, Bagge's observations helped fashion the aesthetics and attitudes of the only significant youth movement to emerge from the Pacific Northwest. A contemporary review by Bruce Barcott in the Seattle Weekly stated, "Twenty years from now, when people want to know what it was like to be young in 1990s Seattle, the only record we'll have is Peter Bagge's Hate."

The Complete Hate is a new paperback series that includes the original 30-issue run from 1990-1998, the nine subsequent Hate Annuals, and tons of other Hate-related comics, illustrations, and ephemera created for books, magazines, comics, toys, and other merchandise. Bagge combined his cartoony drawing style with uncomfortably real Gen X characters, and the comic books resonated with readers. Vol. 1 collects the first major arc of the series, (Hate 1-15), focusing on young Buddy Bradley's travails in early 1990s Seattle, with a lengthy introduction by Bagge. Each volume contains new covers, endpapers, title pages, and other surprises by the author.

By Moa Romanova

$29.99 / HC / 240 pgs / FC / 7.6" x 10.3"

Eisner Award winner Moa Romanova returns with an autobiographical graphic novel about accompanying her rock star bestie on a U.S. tour, fueled only by alcohol, drugs and sex.

How do you prevent history from repeating itself, and is it possible to protect the one you love from themselves? When cartoonist Moa Romanova joins her rock star bestie on a U.S. tour, life quickly turns chaotic, as adolescent trauma begins to haunt her.

Buff Soul tackles addiction, friendship, and loss in a rollicking road trip adventure involving selling speed, breaking bones, massive hangovers, drug withdrawal, having your entire fist inside your best friend, and shooting guns in the desert. What begins as an insanely comical, hedonistic road trip in the spirit of Pineapple Express, takes a dark turn when her best friend disappears. This event triggers memories of an adolescent trauma she had yet to reckon with, leading Romanova to confront the reality of how far she's let her self-destruction go.

THE MOON PRINCE

By Kevin Fraser Mutch

$29.99 / SC / 448 pgs / FC / 7.5" × 9"

This fantasy graphic novel, starring bi-racial orphans Max and Molly, is a rollicking adventure to the Moon with a powerful anti-racist message.

Mistreated for being mixed-race and forced into hard labor at a workhouse in West Hoboken, New Jersey, young Max and Molly are ordinary orphans — or so they think. That is, until a wise old man hears their last name: M'Chawi. Rattled by this realization, he sends them off on a journey that will uncover the secret behind their mystic lineage and give them purpose and power far from home — on the Moon!

The Moon is a land locked in constant battle. Races live in fear and ignorance of one another. To make matters worse, the siblings' getaway isn't as clean as they'd hoped, and the Earth Queen's Grand Inquisitor is hot on their trail. Armed with a bejeweled dagger, pendant, and pure hearts, Max and Molly must unite the denizens of the Moon under a common cause, before humanity's folly reduces their world to rubble. Equal parts Jules Verne and Bone, The Moon Prince is a star-spanning, page-turning epic for the ages.

LASER EYE SURGERY

By Walker Tate

$19.99 / SC / 96 pgs / B&W / 8.5" × 11"

A chance encounter with a misplaced flyer leads to disaster as a seemingly ordinary eyesight-correction operation takes on sinister overtones.

"Correct your sight - See what you've been missing." An unnamed man decides to adjust his sight, setting him and the reader down a path of confusion and mistrust. As optical defects begin to emerge from the operation, the man begins to doubt his own senses. Impressionable and easily alarmed, the man comes to suspect he has received much more than he paid for.

Set in a bleak world without much to see, cosmic dangers lurk just out of sight in the corner of one's eye. If only there was a way to see them better... Fixed views deteriorate in this warped account of a surgical procedure gone awry. As the man's vision continues to change in unforeseen ways, he plunges down a path of confusion and intrigue, no longer sure what to trust. Are the perceived dangers present, or merely thought to be, and which is worse? Shifty and withholding, steeped in paranoia, Laser Eye Surgery is a comedically unsettling rumination on perception and its trappings — and a formidable debut graphic novel by New York cartoonist Walker Tate.

MARRY ME A LITTLE GN

(W/A) Robert Kirby

Marriage doesn't define a relationship. Unless you want it to. In Marry Me a Little, Rob Kirby recounts his experience of marrying his longtime partner, John, just after gay marriage was legalized in Minnesota in 2013, and two years before the Supreme Court decision in Obergefell v. Hodges made gay marriage the law of the land. This is a personal story—about Rob's ambivalence (if not antipathy) toward the institution of marriage, his loving relationship with John, and the life that they share together—set against the historical and political backdrop of shifting attitudes toward gay rights and the institution of marriage. With humor and candor, Rob relates how he and John navigated this changing landscape, how they planned and celebrated their wedding, and how they and others in the gay community are now facing the very real possibility of setbacks to marriage equality. TAROT: A GRAPHIC HISTORY HC

(W/A) Valentina Grande
Pamela Colman-Smith: artist, occultist, true bohemian. Her illustrations defined the iconography of the classic tarot deck, but she is all too often forgotten. Born in London in 1878, Colman-Smith moved to Jamaica with her parents at the age of eleven and then to New York to study art. She dropped out of college following her mother's death in 1896, and after her father died in 1899 she found herself back in London, joining the infamous Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn, a secret society dedicated to the study of occultism. It was there that she met Arthur Edward Waite, with whom she created the classic Rider-Waite tarot deck that is still in print today. This beautifully illustrated graphic history tells Colman-Smith's tale and relates it to the iconic cards she helped to create, from the Fool, the beginning of every new adventure, to the Magician, who focusses energy, to the Hanged Man, who helps us see things from a different angle, until finally we embrace the World and fulfil our destinies. (W/A/CA) Shirakawa Marina
New Printing! A flying saucer crashes deep in the mountains of Japan. Wary of the hyper-intelligent beings they find inside, the government hides from the public all news of the alien craft. But it's not the strange visitors themselves that they should be afraid of—the real danger is the parasitic spores smuggled aboard! Will Earth survive the UFO Mushroom Invasion?! Originally published in 1976, Shirakawa Marina's UFO Mushroom Invasion is a masterpiece of sci-fi horror. Pulling on his deep knowledge of Japanese folklore and the supernatural, Shirakawa serves up one of manga history's cult-classics and an unforgettably creepy entry in the canon of spore-horror. TOO MUCH COFFEE MAN: THE ORIGINAL COMICS #1-9 TP

(W/A/CA) Shannon Wheeler

Starting out as a mini-comic character, Too Much Coffee Man turned into a long-running newspaper strip, Eisner-winning comic book series, Converse shoe commercial, one of the first webcomics, and an opera. The semi-autobiographical, hyper-intellectual, high-concept comic appeals to both inside and outside the comic book world. It's caught the zeitgeist of the 90s and, unlike many other characters of the time, continues to hold social and political relevance. This book collects the Too Much Coffee Man #1-9 comic books, originally self-published from 1992 to 1998. It includes new essays that contextualize, and give insight, to the original work. TOO MUCH COFFEE MAN SAVES THE UNIVERSE (AND OTHER MISTAKES) TP

(W/A/CA) Shannon Wheeler

Brace yourself for a new Too Much Coffee Man collection from Eisner Award winning and New Yorker cartoonist Shannon Wheeler. This new book collects the first appearances of TMCM from the mini-comics, short stories, ads, and, notably, the story Wheeler shot with a gun. Also included are contemporaneous sketches by Sergio Arragones, Dan Clowes, Adrian Tomine, Mike Judge, and others, as well as a spiffy die-cut cover. Wheeler updates the material with contextualizing essays that explain, among other things, what a cord on a telephone is. (STL372760) (C: 0-1-2) NOTE: This item may be available through other retail outlets before shipping to comic book specialty shops.

BEFORE SUPERMAN: SUPERHUMANS OF THE RADIUM AGE SC

(W) Joshua Glenn

Superhumans—humans who've evolved into creatures stronger, smarter, and more gifted than we have any reason to be—first showed up in science-fictional narratives during the genre's emergent Radium Age. Originally published between 1902 and 1928, the stories and excerpts anthologized in this volume by Joshua Glenn feature the likes of Marie Corelli's Young Diana, who, having been rendered super-alluring via a rejuvenation experiment, seeks revenge on a sexist society; Thomas Dunbar, one of the first lab-created superhumans; Zoo and Yvo, superwomen who contemplate the extermination of us mere mortals, thanks to George Bernard Shaw and H. Rider Haggard; and Alfred Jarry's André Marcueil, a scientist who develops a super-sexual capacity. Hugo Gernsback gives us Ralph 124C 41+, a benevolent super-genius inventor who dwells atop a New York skyscraper. Thea von Harbou's genius scientist, Rotwang, is even less conscientious in his scheming; as is Arthur Conan Doyle's ever-irascible Professor Challenger, here in one of his final outings. Finally, Jean de La Hire's Nyctalope, a popular French super-powered crimefighter character, makes an appearance; and so does Edgar Rice Burroughs's Tarzan of the Apes... though reduced to miniature size. YOU CAN'T ESCAPE THIS GAME, EVEN IN YOUR DREAMS. Acclaimed creators Zac Thompson (Into the Unbeing—Parts 1 & 2) and Daniel Irrizari (Judge Dredd, XINO) enter an synapse-shredding new level of the groundbreaking science-horror hybrid that began with CEMETERY KIDS DON'T DIE!

One year ago, four friends barely escaped the unrelenting terror of the video game called Nightmare Cemetery. After spending endless hours locked into the innovative Dreamwave—the first gaming console played entirely while you sleep—in order to save one of their own from the game's all-too-real consequences, they survived . . . barely.

But after their harrowing rescue, they've decided they've had enough of Nightmare Cemetery and its enigmatic final boss, the King of Sleep. That is, until the newest DLC, The Blighted Sprawl, suddenly appears online with a promise to reveal the truth of what actually lurks at the heart of Nightmare Cemetery's digital darkness . . . and why its effects are now bleeding out into the real world in an array of bizarre and disturbing new ways.

The sold-out series that AiPT! called "compelling sci-fi horror . . . that feels closer to home than it should" returns with a perfect new jumping-on point for the series that challenges Stephen King, Clive Barker, and David Cronenberg to a three-way PVP deathmatch in a cyberpunk haunted house!

"I'm saying all of that was never real in the first place. It is not that you will cease to exist, Marcus, it is that you never really existed in the first place. That life was always an illusion. Your dreams were always temporary. Your memories were always an invention. But you know, let's be honest, that's how it is for most people, when you get right down to it. You think you have this future. You think you have this past. But everything is always going away. Everything is always in the process of coming to nothing. But what I'm telling you, Marcus, is that I am different. For some cosmic reasons impossible to understand, I matter. I have a chance to save the universe . . . and you have a chance to save me. That is more—so much more—than most people ever get." —Benjamin J. Carp, novelist (Deceased. Robot? Ghost? Alien?)

From Philip K. Award–winning writer Ben H. Winters (EC's Cruel Universe) and extraordinary artist Leomacs (Basketful of Heads), the prestige-format examination of a dead science-fiction icon's unexpected return to Earth concludes with a mind-bending meditation of existence itself.

THE END IS HERE! Dave Hill (Tasteful Nudes) and Artyom Topilin's (EC's Cruel Universe) insanely autobiographical epic of a comedian-turned-metal-band-frontman who tested the patience of Norway's most extreme black metal butchers is sure to end on a high note!

As Monte's life hangs in the balance—held hostage by Lucifuge, the leader of Dave's Norwegian archnemeses who've traveled halfway around the world to confront him—Dave and Witch Taint must prove their music to be more grim and brutal than anything ever heard by humans ears . . . or possibly be savagely murdered in cold blood if they can't get it together. Talk about pressure! Dark Regards comes to its devilish denouement!

Harley Creed is a bad man. He used to be worse. A violent ex-con with a string of brutal crimes in his past, he only wanted one thing when he finally walked free from prison: to leave Briar Falls, WV, behind and disappear forever. But Harley's hometown has a strange way of swallowing people whole—call it a consequence of the low-level folk magic that has permeated its darker corners for generations. And now that Harley has returned, pent-up vengeance for his past crimes is about to come roaring back. Somebody has put a hex on him—and Harley has seven days before he dies in twisted, screaming agony.

To reverse it, Harley must find and kill his unseen enemy before their curse can reap its terrible end. But in Briar Falls, there's no shortage of suspects—and Harley is coming for them all. If can't have peace, at least he can have revenge.

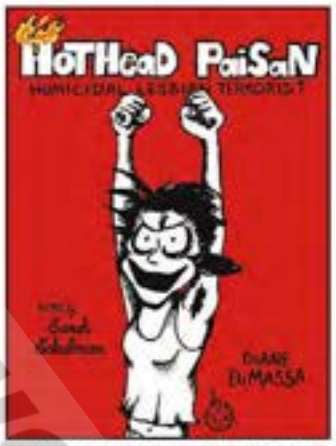
HOTHEAD PAISAN: HOMICIDAL LESBIAN TERRORIST GN



(W) Diane Dimassa

Hothead Paisan, a murderous icon of the '90s LGBTQ+ comics scene, comes roaring back into print in this fresh edition (including a new interview and supplemental materials) of one of the funniest, sharpest, and most unexpectedly warm comics of the late twentieth century, still as shocking today as it was more than two decades ago. Diane DiMassa's Hothead starts out in a murderous frenzy—taking out a variety of everyday chauvinists and creeps—but soon deepens into a reflection on oppression, self-destruction, and living it up outside the conservative norms of the '90s. Hothead's rage is sometimes tempered with the help of Thing #2, her defensive inner demon; Roz, her friend who offers Zen wisdom and tough love; and Chicken, her cat and constant companion. This collection includes a new interview with DiMassa along with a selection of fan mail and other materials that shed light on Hothead's vast underground following. At last, the most thoughtful homicidal maniac is back in print. (STL375771) (C: 1-1-2) NOTE: Available only in US, Canada, and US territories.

METAMAUS SC GN

(W) Art Spiegelman

Art Spiegelman's Maus is an undisputed modern classic. Part history, part memoir, all comic, it recounts his father's chilling experiences during the Holocaust, with Jews drawn as wide-eyed mice and Nazis as menacing cats. In 1992, it became the first graphic novel to win a Pulitzer Prize. In MetaMaus, Spiegelman welcomes readers into his world and the thirteen years-long artistic process behind his seminal book. In extensive interviews with the author and his family—including Spiegelman's original conversation with his father, which served as the foundational narrative of Maus—MetaMaus grapples with the original work's most foundational questions: Why write about the Holocaust? Why choose comics as a medium? Why mice? Richly interspersed with excerpts from Spiegelman's own sketchbooks, as well as drawings by Holocaust survivors and archival photographs, MetaMaus is a vivid glimpse into the creative life of an artist, the vital work of a historian, and the birth of a magnum opus. PUTNAM SONS BOOKS FOR YOUNG READERS

DEEPWATER CREEK GN

(W/A) Michael Regina

There's nothing that Wade and his younger brother, Andrew, love more than fishing together. As summer draws to a close, they're excited for one last hoorah before classes begin and they end up at different schools for the first time. But a typical fishing trip with their best friends, Camilla and Tommy, quickly takes a darker turn. As heavy fog creeps over the creek, Andrew hooks something big—too big. In a moment of chaos, the brothers end up overboard. There, in the murky depths, they get a glimpse of what waits at the end of the line. And it seems far more monster than fish. Wade and the others wonder if the recent hurricane that hit the area may have stirred up more than just water, unleashing something horrible from below. Their parents don't believe they saw anything at all. But if there really is something out there, the kids know someone needs to stop it. So, they decide to do what they do best and go fishing for their biggest catch yet: evidence of a real-life river monster. Will these four friends be able to prove everyone wrong and save the creek, or are they about to discover they're in way over their heads... and in deep trouble? (W/A) Maple Lam

But since the great war, the beasts have been cast out of the city and things seem more divided than ever. When he crash lands in the city, Wukong finds himself in the middle of it all. He soon meets a boy named Momotaro who believes the beasts have stolen an important magical object, and a kitsune named Kit who is convinced humans have burned down the beast's only source of food in the wild. With these latest incidents, the tension between beasts and humans comes to a breaking point. But Wukong suspects something more sinister is behind everything: a monster trying to get the two sides to fight. He and his new friends must race against the clock to uncover the true villain before all-out war breaks out in the city! William Lincoln, an impatient businessman in his 20s, casually asks a small-town coffee shop barista about a carousel horse atop its roof. They settle into a conversation that immediately disturbs young William. It is the story of an elderly man hoping to experience the amusement park one last time to recapture childhood memories, to relish the rapidly fleeting remaining moments. Instead of pleasant memories, each attraction becomes a surreal microcosm of aging and its inherent challenges as bodies and minds begin to break down. The elderly man is abused, pushed in a seemingly endless throng of elderly people through attractions that mimic the final stages of life. Finally, he winds up right back where he started, battered both mentally and physically. In Los Angeles during the 1940s and 1950s, Disney artists popularized illustration for children both on the big screen and in the pages of the Golden Books, a series of affordably priced children's books. Character Design Quarterly (CDQ) is a lively, creative magazine bringing inspiration, expert insights, and leading techniques from professional illustrators, artists, and character art enthusiasts worldwide. The cover for issue 33 has been created by Argentinian artist and 3dtotal favourite, Gretel Lusky. She is an incredibly popular illustrator and comic-book artist, and she shares her expert insights in this issue with an interview and step-by-step of her cover-creation process. Elsewhere, Canadian illustrator Dan Gartman shows us how he creates his stylized character designs, while Athena Dela Victoria, an illustrator from the Philippines, brings a medieval knight to life in six easy steps. Plus German artist Meike Schneider draws inspiration from classic fairy tales to create a brand-new character. (STL372492) (C: 1-1-1)

THE FIRE-BREATHING DUCKLING HC
(W) Frank Cammuso
This graphic novel for young readers ages 5 to 7 updates the story of an ugly duckling becoming a beautiful swan—but the odd duck out is actually a dragon! It's the classic ugly duckling tale—but this time around, the little one turns out not to be a swan, but a dragon. And when their duckling siblings find themselves in trouble, it's our little fire-breathing friend who saves the day. Whereas Hans Christian Andersen's original is synonymous with inner beauty, Frank Cammuso's loving update turns it into a parable of inner strength. (STL375758) (C: 0-1-2)

DROME GN

(W/A/CA) Jesse Lonergan

Jesse Lonergan rewrites the rules of graphic novels with Drome, a visually mind-blowing epic about war, love, and death in a fledgling world. First, there was nothing. Then, humanity was born, and an endless cycle of violence began. From the depths of the ocean, a mighty demigoddess is called forth to reign in humankind's destructive impulses, and teach a language of peace and harmony. Civilization quickly takes root, a great city rising from the desert. But the balance between chaos and order is a fragile one, and there are higher powers at work in this strange new world. In turns pulse-pounding and heart-wrenching, Drome is a creation myth for the modern age. (STL372721) (C: 0-1-1)

FREE SPEECH HANDBOOK GN

(W) Ian Rosenberg
(A) Mike Cavallaro

In a nation where everyone wants to speak and be heard, this First Amendment right is vital to our identity and our democracy. In Free Speech Handbook, Ian Rosenberg and Mike Cavallaro trace this history across ten seminal Supreme Court cases while drawing parallels with more recent controversies. Rosenberg's straightforward language combines with Cavallaro's bold and bright art to create an accessible and engaging crash course on the meaning, reach, and limits of our free speech protections. THE RAVEN BOYS GN

(W) Maggie Stiefvater, Stephanie Williams
(A) Sas Milledge

The first book in Maggie Stiefvater's #1 NYT bestselling series The Raven Cycle, now gorgeously illustrated as a graphic novel! Blue Sargent comes from a family of psychics. Only, she has never had the same clairvoyant abilities they had and has always felt too ordinary within the magic that surrounded her. Enter Gansey, a rich student from Aglionby, the town's all-boys private school teeming with wealth, privilege, and trouble. Blue's always made it a point to stay away from its students, the Raven Boys. But when Gansey asks her to join him and three other Raven Boys on his quest to find a long-forgotten Welsh king rumored to be sleeping beneath the mountains of their quiet Virginia town, Blue doesn't hesitate. She jumps at the chance to finally be a part of something real and full of magic, a world she was born into yet one that always stood just out of reach. Soon enough, she's swept into a strange and shifting world woven into theirs, one far more dangerous than anything they could have dreamt up. (STL375757) (C: 0-1-0)

Also included is a KO face for Amazing Yamaguchi! Luke, perfect for recreating intense matchups. Ryu's signature Hadoken is brought to life with a large effect part, complete with energy ball, projectile, and shockwave pieces to depict both standard and close-range attacks. SUICIDE SQUAD ISEKAI: HARLEY QUINN 1/7-SCALE VINYL STATUE

From Kaiyodo. From DC's TV anime Suicide Squad: Another World, Kaiyodo has recreated Harley Quinn, who showed free-spirited rampage even in a world of swords and magic, as a 1/7-scale figure! Standing at about 9 3/8" tall, she reproduces the coquettish pose from the official illustration. While she is cute with a peace sign, her quirky smile that hides her villainous side is also her unique charm. Her two-tone red and black outfit is made of a leather jacket with a bustier and hot pants, and the different textures of each part are expressed through painting. The fleshiness of her slim proportions, the pose that expresses her light movements, and the way her outfit flutters are exquisitely sculpted to give the impression of her potential to be active in action scenes! GHOST GALAXY

KEYFORGE ADVENTURES: FALL OF THE HOUSE GORMANGEIST

From Richard Garfield the creator of Magic the Gathering.

You and fellow Archons have recently received a mysterious invitation delivered by a strange hooded creature making odd clanking noises. Filigreed and AEmber-lettered, it graciously asks that you attend an event of no small magnificence at an old estate near Diremouth, a distant, mostly forgotten part of the Crucible. It seems suspicious. Yet the invite is strangely alluring, and there is the promise of AEmber. After traveling to the gloomy neglect that is Diremouth, you find yourself on the doorstep of the ancient House Gormangeist, and on the threshold of dark things to come. KeyForge Adventures is a series of unique game modules in which one to three players work together to overcome a great challenge or danger to the Crucible and its denizens. To face the challenge inside each KeyForge Adventure, players will need a standard 36-card KeyForge deck, a set of keys, and sufficient tokens and counters from their own collection. (STL374514) Item has been previously solicited in *New to Order. (C: 1-1-2) NOTE: Available only within US and territories.

The beast must be defeated! KeyForge Adventures is a series of unique cooperative game modules in which one to three players work to overcome a great challenge or danger to the Crucible and its denizens. To face the challenge inside each KeyForge Adventure, players will need a standard 36-card KeyForge deck, a set of keys, and sufficient tokens and counters from their own collection. KEYFORGE ADVENTURES: THE ABYSSAL CONSPIRACY

From Richard Garfield the creator of Magic the Gathering.

The Keyraken has been vanquished! Yet, the trouble is not over. While the Archons defeated the mythical beast, a red-eyed intruder sabotaged their ship. Here, players must descend into the ocean depths to investigate aquatic locations to foil the plans of the conspiracy of Evil Twins. If the cult is able to open five seals, it will release a horde of their kind into the Crucible, and the players will lose. Yet, if the players can find the legendary Vaultbinder artifact, they may yet prevail. KeyForge Adventures is a series of unique game modules in which one to three players work together to overcome a great challenge or danger to the Crucible and its denizens. To face the challenge inside each KeyForge Adventure, players will need a standard 36-card KeyForge deck, a set of keys, and sufficient tokens and counters from their own collection.
